With support of the Norway Grants, the Latvian Prison Administration 2021 magazine issue has been published. The Latvian Prison Administration is publishing the magazine for the second year in a row with the aim of promoting the awareness of prison system personnel and cooperation partners about the history, development and future plans of the Latvian correctional system.

Everyone has the opportunity to view the contents of the magazine in digital format – to learn more about the work of the Latvian Prison Administration, study the Latvian prison environment, find out interesting facts about their history, read interviews with officials, learn more about prison social workers and chaplains and get acquainted with other topics related to the sentence execution in Latvia.

The magazine is available here:
